

The Daily Courant.

Friday, November 20. 1702.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 16.

Lisbon, October 17.

Within these five Weeks above 40 Jews, Men and Women, have been imprison'd by the Inquisition.

From the Amst. Courant, Nov. 18.

Rome, Oct. 23. Some days since Cardinal Grimani had an Audience of 3 hours of the Pope, to endeavour to compose the Difference between this Court and the Imperial Ambassador; who, tho' he has continued in the City, has not been to wait on his Holiness since the Departure of the Marquess del Vasto.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 14.

They write from Warsaw of the 30th of October, That the Cardinal Primate having excus'd himself from coming to the Senatus Consilium which met at Warsaw on the 23d; the King of Poland had dismiss'd the Assembly, and had summon'd another to meet at Thorn on the 22d of November: And that accordingly his Majesty was gone from that City to Thorn. The Advices from Thorn of the 3d say, That the King of Poland is arriv'd there.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 18.

Warsaw, Nov. 2. The Field-Marsals of Poland and Lithuania, are order'd by the Republick, not to act any longer in a hostile manner against the Sweeds; that the Negotiations for Peace may not be obstructed.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 21.

Thorn, Nov. 9. Last Tuesday the King went over the Vistula, to view the Disposition of his Saxon Troops in their Winter-Quarters on that side. The General of Great Poland has put a Garrison into Posen. The Sweedish Army is at Sendomir.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 23.

Dresden, Nov. 14. We have advice by an Express out of Poland, that a Truce is agreed on between the Kings of Poland and Sweden: And we look upon the Peace to be as good as concluded; We do not yet know the Conditions of the Treaty, nor whether the Czar is included in it. The Saxon Field-Marshal has order'd 10 Regiments that lay about Marienbourg in Prussia, to march with all diligence to Breslaw, to be taken there into the Emperor's Service; The rest of our Regiments will Winter in Prussia and Great Poland. The whole Saxon Court will go to wait on the King at Thorn.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 23.

Dresden, Nov. 14. Letters from Warsaw of the 6th say, That the hopes of a Peace are increas'd, upon the King of Poland's having order'd 7 or 8000 Men into the Emperor's Service. And Orders have been sent to the Field-Marsals of the Armies of the Crown, and of Lithuania, to forbear acting Hostilities against the Sweeds.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 14.

Liege, Nov. 10. Several Persons that left this City while it was in the Hands of the French, are return'd hither; and on the other side the Count de Portier, the Count de Berge, Count Tilly, the Marquess de Lestre, and the Prince of Nassau, are retir'd from hence. To day Count Sinzendorf the Emperor's

Plenipotentiary, order'd several Burgomasters, and Monsieur Sluse one of our Common-Council, to depart out of this City within 24 hours, and not to come within 3 Leagues of it without leave from him; and the Postmaster Monsieur de Belvaux is commanded to be gone out of the Principality of Liege within 3 days.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 18.

Maastricht, Nov. 15. The Chapter of Liege are deliberating on the Proposition made to them by Count Sinzendorf the Imperial Minister, for convening the States of that Principality in their own Name. Two Commissioners appointed by that Chapter, and as some say by the Emperor likewise, are arriv'd here to consult with the Commissioners of the States General, about changing the Magistracy of this City.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 21.

Liege, Nov. 17. There is so strong a Party of the Chapter of Liege in the French Interest, that they have refus'd to convene the Estates of the Country to consult of taking fit Measures in the present Situation of Affairs; of which Advice is sent to the Emperor, and 'tis expected that he will order the Estates to be assembled in virtue of his Imperial Authority. The Count de Sinzendorf, and the Prince of Saxe-Zeyts Bishop of Raab, are expected here in a short time; 'tis believ'd the latter will be made Coadjutor or Coadministrator by the Emperor.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 14.

Cologne, Nov. 10. The Chancellor Karrig is gone from Bonn, to wait upon the Elector of Cologne at Luxemburg, under a Convoy of 300 Men. He was no sooner out of the Town, but a great Dispute happen'd between the Marquess d'Allegre and the Count de St. Maurice; the Marquess commanded the Count to march out of Bonn with the Troops of Cologne, and post himself in Lintz and Andernach; but the Count refus'd, alledging, That he could not obey any French Orders. Upon which Monsieur d'Allegre dispatch'd Couriers to the King and to the Elector.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 18.

Cologne, Nov. 14. Chancellor Karrig is return'd to Bonn, but the Differences betwixt the Elector's Officers, the Spaniards, and the French, are grown to that height, that 'tis believ'd he will not tarry long there.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 25.

Cologne, Nov. 21. Baron Nothaf Collonel of a Regiment of the Elector of Cologne's Troops, and the Count de St. Maurice, have fought a Duel at Luxemburg, in which the former was mortally wounded; the occasion of the Quarrel is said to be his having reproach'd the Count de St. Maurice with being one of those who had brought the Elector into his present Misfortunes.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 20.

Brussels, Nov. 15. The Marshal de Boufflers, who is now in this City, receiv'd Orders last Sunday to separate the Army; he will take up his Quarters here with Messieurs de Ximenes and Puysegur; the Count de Gasse will reside in Antwerp; and the Marquess d'Usson in Louvain; having the Country from from Dieft to Loo under his Care: The Count de Gaffion will command in the County of Waes; the Count de la Motte about Ostend; and the Marquess de Blainville in Namur.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 21.

Cologne, Nov. 17. Two days ago 5 Regiments of Horse and Dragoons pass'd over the Rhine, here and at Mulheim, to go into Winter-Quarters in the Country of Bergues. The Confederate Troops are so dispos'd on each side of the Rhine, that in 24 hours time they can draw together 30 or 40000 Men. The Hessians, Lunenburgers, and other Troops, will keep Bonn block'd up this Winter. We are told, That the French, because this City has taken in Dutch Troops, will not suffer any Vessels to pass either up or down the River before Bonn, and refuse likewise to grant Passports.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 23.

Wesel, Nov. 18. Last Friday the Garrison of Rhinberg plunder'd the Villages of Offenbergh, Stromers, and Boudbergen, within the County of Meurs, drove away the Cattle into Rhinberg, and burnt the Palace of Spruu; upon which 'tis thought convenient to block up Rhinberg more closely, to which end a Line is making from Offenbergh to Alpen with Redoubts, on which 3000 Peasants are working, with 2000 Foot and 1000 Horse to guard them.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 25.

Cologne, Nov. 21. The Governour of Rhinberg has sent away his Cavalry, for want of Forrage, to Golder; of which the Parties of the Confederates having Intelligence, made after them, and cut off some of their Rear-guard. 'Tis hoped that Rhinberg will be oblig'd to surrender this Winter, for want of Provisions.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 18.

Dusseldorp, Nov. 13. The Elector Palatine has acquainted the Town of Aix la Chappelle, That the War being declar'd by the Empire against France and the Duke of Anjou, they must receive a Garrison of Dutch Troops; otherwise he will compel them by force.

Count Sinzendorf made the like Proposition to them; and prevail'd with them to receive 2 Regiments of Horse and 4 of Foot on the 15th.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 21.

Frankfort, Nov. 15. Dr. Aglionby, Envoy from the Queen of England to the Swiss Cantons, is gone through Stutgard to Switzerland.
